3. Student Admission and Support

Admission process for the B. Tech students starts from the admission CET portal

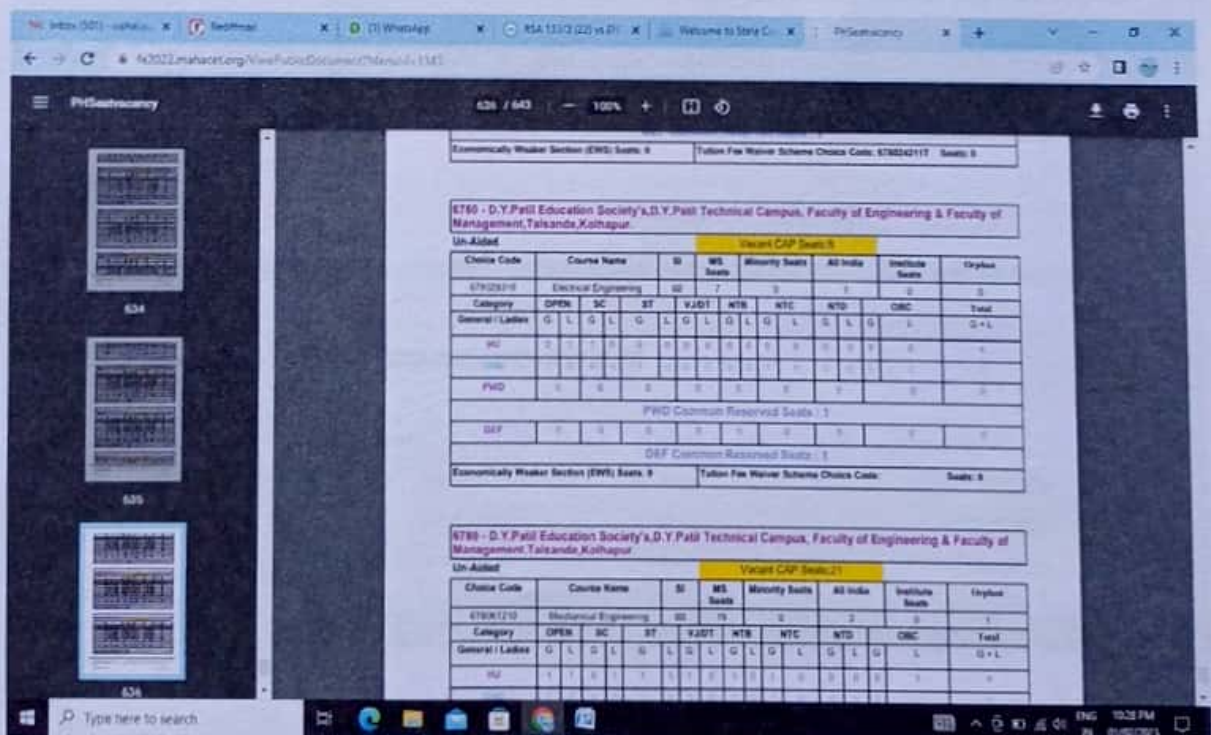

Students should register through the CET portal to participate in the B. Tech admission process

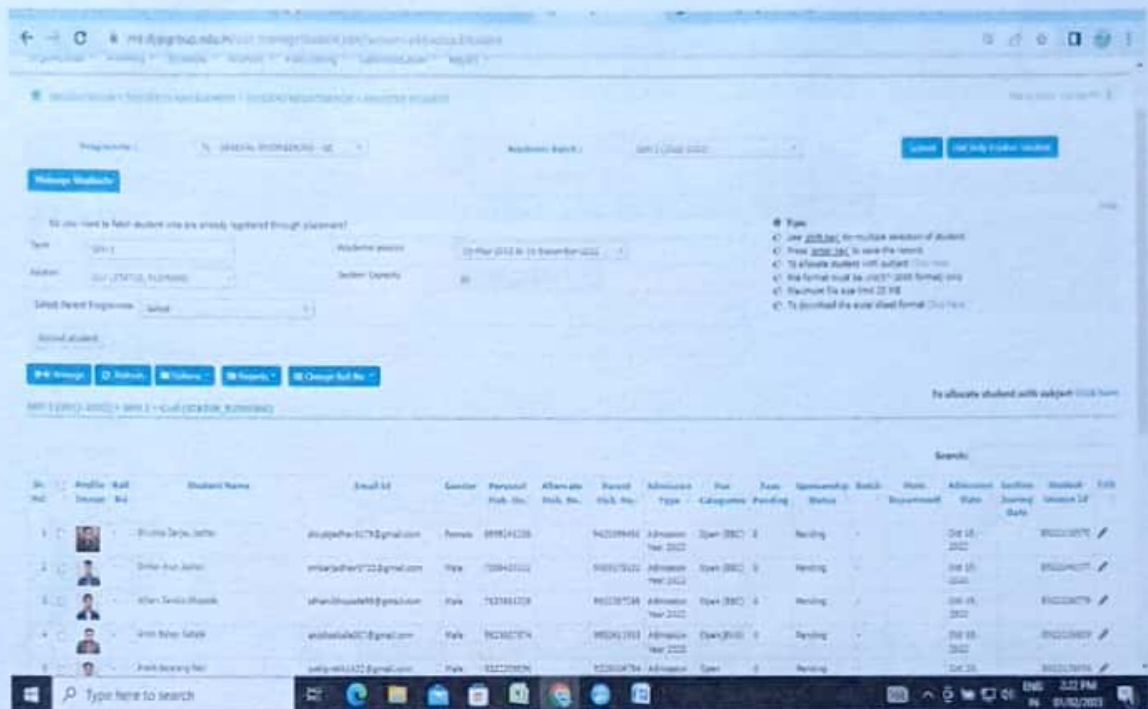

After registration students are able to login with their own login credentials. This login details allowed them to fill the option form for the college selection i.e. CAP round.

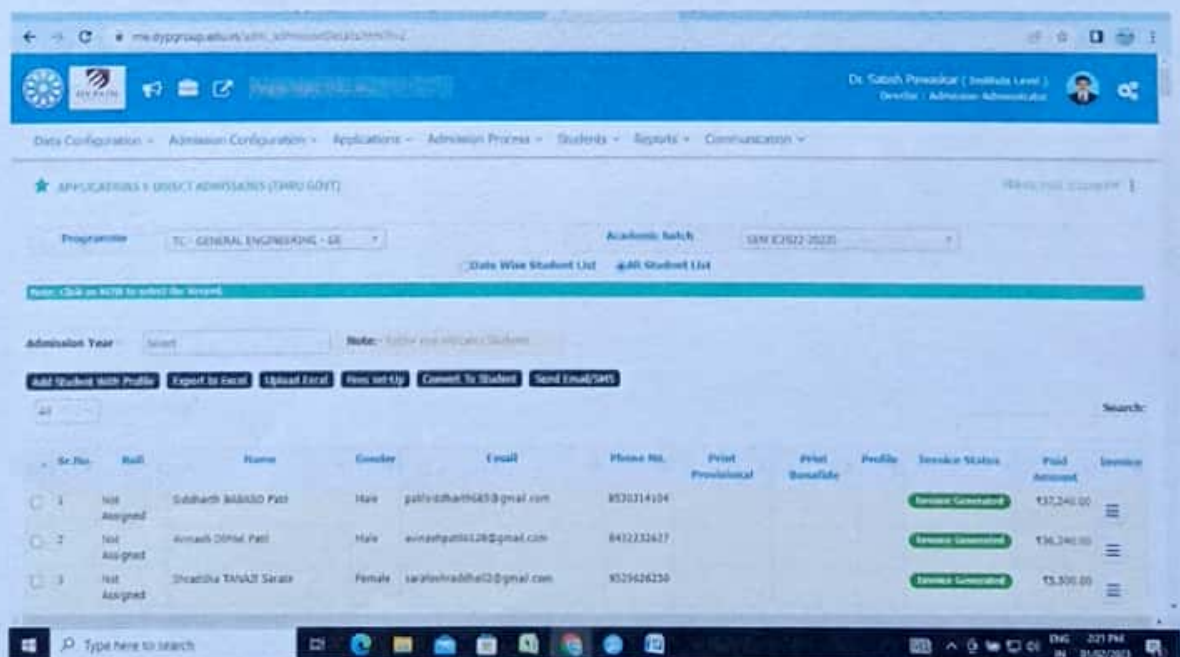

There is provision to display provisional vacancy seats of all colleges after each CAP round to all the students

Once the student get admitted to the college he/ she should enroll himself/ herself through gems college software

After registration through the college GEMS application the interface will display like that
