

Criterion 7-Institutional Values and Best Practices

Key Indicator-7.1 Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.11 Institution celebrates / organizes national and international commemorative days, events and festivals.

D Y Patil College actively celebrates national and international commemorative days to foster constitutional responsibilities, instill patriotic spirit, and promote unity among citizens. These celebrations aim to create a sense of social responsibility and community among students and staff.

International Women's Day, celebrated on March 8, includes guest lectures to inspire and empower women, emphasizing their pivotal role in society. International Yoga Day on June 21 highlights self-discipline and well-being through yoga practices. Similarly, National Yoga Day promotes health awareness within the college community.

Shiv Jayanti, celebrated in February, honors the legacy of the great Maratha emperor Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, instilling pride in regional history and culture. The Ekta Din Pledge event reinforces the importance of unity and social responsibility among students, contributing to a positive learning environment.

The Durga Mata Daud event blends tradition and fitness, with participants in traditional attire engaging in a symbolic run. The occasion fosters community bonding through cultural performances and shared experiences. Additionally, the Panchpran Pledge encourages students to embrace their duties and responsibilities, nurturing their sense of commitment.

Through these initiatives, the college promotes a holistic understanding of cultural, historical, and social values, creating an environment that nurtures responsible and informed citizens.
